It belongs to a special class of compounds known as “Nature’s Biological Response Modifiers.” In short, these precious food compounds have the ability to support the immune system and help maintain the body’s healthy response to allergens such as pollen, dust and smoke, and pathogens like bacteria.*

Quercetin Strength™ is a whole food quercetin formula designed to support the health of the respiratory and cardiovascular systems. It is recommended for use during the winter months and throughout the allergy season.

Quercetin is a bioactive antioxidant known to:

- Help maintain already healthy histamine levels*

- Promote cellular health*

The bioactivity of quercetin in Quercetin Strength is enhanced with the addition of flavonoid-rich whole oranges, wild blueberries and fresh cape cod cranberries. These colorful foods offer surprising health benefits in their own right and ensure you receive maximum benefit from each Quercetin Strength tablet.

Those who supplement with MegaFood Quercetin Strength may enjoy a healthy and happier allergy season. For severe allergy sufferers, two tablets a day are suggested. Daily neti pot cleansing to soothe nasal membranes may also be beneficial.*
