

Looking for the Key to Health? This Revolutionary Device Instructs the Body to Revitalize & Heal Using Mathematical Formulas

Mathematical algorithms now lead the way in quantum healing. Learn how traditional and alternative practitioners are using the Trinifinity8 to renew energy and vitality, relieve stress and anxiety and even reverse the signs of aging.

Trinifinity8 is a revolutionary tool for creating positive vibrational change, using specific mathematical formulas, or algorithms that give instructions to the body through numeric binary code to achieve a new level of healing.

Math is the universal language of nature and human DNA. It underlies the entire geometric blueprint of creation. Currently, only five percent of our DNA's potential is understood; leaving us to wonder: "Is there a code for health and aging that can be reprogrammed?"

How Does Trinifinity8 Work?

Trinifinity8 is the first system of its kind to use a personal computer to deliver non-invasive rejuvenation programs based on mathematical codes, vibrational energies and fractal formulations that are in harmony with core energetics that encompass all of nature.

Trinifinity8's unique technology allows for streams of coded data to be transmitted directly through your computer's USB port. A digital translator device then sends information and gives instruction to the body via specially designed hand-held quartz crystal transmitter/receiver rods.

Technology has long used quartz crystals for transmitting information. Electronic devices such as radios, television, laptops, cell phones and even your wrist watch contain crystals. Crystals communicate data in the Trinifinity8 in much the same way as they do in laptops, iPhones, radios, televisions and wrist watches.

Trinifinity8 uses a uniquely designed fractal resonator that displays beautiful geometric animations during various programs. This resonator amplifies the energetic and mathematical codes to maximize the desired treatment effects. Soothing Solfeggio sound tones are also played during sessions to enhance healing and transformation.

Trinifinity8 is for those who want to transform their entire being, taking it beyond the ordinary into a state of balance, youthful vitality and well-being. With that purpose in mind, 72 different Trinifinity8 programs have been designed to offer something for many of the most urgent concerns facing us today.

Trinifinity8 Software Programs Include:

Stress Reduction- Trinifinity8 helps release deep emotional and physical blockages with 11 targeted programs, while restoring feelings of well-being and relaxation. Many people report sleeping deeply for the first time after one session.

(Please see reverse side for more information.)

Energy Restoration- Nine programs were designed to help balance energy centers, auric fields and alignment with renewed vibrational power. People have reported experiencing increased energy, libido, physical strength and creative inspiration.

Health & Nutrition- Trinfinity8 includes 11 programs to stimulate the body's reparative process to slow the signs of aging, while replenishing it with algorithmic nutrients that help cleanse and detoxify the system. People report looking and feeling younger.

Face & Beauty- 14 targeted programs help diminish lines and wrinkles on the face, while giving the skin a more youthful appearance and glow. Algorithms work to stimulate tightening and toning. People have reported skin clearing, brown spots fading, and skin tags dissolving after only a few sessions.

Skin & Hair Rejuvenation- Trinfinity8 helps send healthy messages to the skin and hair for vital repair and stabilization using eight specific programs. People have reported a decrease in inflammation and swelling, clearer skin and increased hair growth on scalp.

Weight Management- Seven programs are available to help stimulate the body's metabolic process to lose or gain weight safely and naturally. Digital messages are sent to help dissolve unwanted fat and cellulite. Research studies showed people lost an average of up to a pound a week without diet or exercise.

Body Sculpting- Trinfinity8's experimental body sculpting option, consisting of 12 programs, allows one to direct algorithms to problem areas of the body where change is desired.
